1. Garden Delights with Molly Chappellet

Private Tour & Luncheon for Eight Guests

Join Molly Chappellet for a guided walking tour of her private garden, followed by a delightful luncheon featuring wines of Chappellet Winery. Wander among the boulders, vines, and a vibrant tapestry of shrubs, perennials, and flowers while you take in the view from atop Pritchard Hill and Lake Hennessey. Molly and her husband Donn co-founded Chappellet Winery in 1967, and along with the help of their six children, continue to produce world-class wines. Molly has authored five books including A Vineyard Garden, winner of the prestigious James Beard Award. When not photographing or creating massive land sculptures, Molly writes and speaks about wine, design, and gardening.

Details: Valid for 8 people.

2. Botanicals & The City - Private Tour of The Berkeley Botanical Garden, The Berkeley City Club & Lunch at Julia's Restaurant

Join Jackie Jackson, Music in the Vineyards' supporter, for a docent-led "Plants of the World" tour at the UC Botanical Garden in Berkeley. Established in 1890, the 34-acre garden is one of the most diverse landscapes in the world, with over 10,000 types of plants including many rare and endangered species. Explore the garden's incredible diversity of plants from six continents, including environments as diverse as deserts, tropical forests, redwood forests, and wetlands.

Following the garden tour, head over to The Berkeley City Club for an architectural tour of this historic building. Built in 1927 to honor the need for a women's activity center, The Berkeley, also known as the "Little Castle," was designed by Julia Morgan, who also designed Hearst Castle, and is on the National Register of Historic Places. Enjoy lunch on site at the famed Julia's Restaurant, serving up delicious French dishes using Bay Area ingredients.
