This musical score presents the second violin part of Johann Pachelbel's famous Canon in D major. The score is organized into ten staves, each corresponding to a specific measure number. The instrumentation is limited to a single violin (Violino II). The music is set in common time and uses a key signature of one sharp (D major). Various dynamics and performance instructions are included throughout the piece, such as 'sostenuto' at the start, dynamic changes between measures (e.g., p, f, mp), and expression markings like espr. and cresc.. A notable feature is the tempo change in measure 41 to 'poco meno' and 'f', followed by another change in measure 47 to 'mf' and 'f'. The score concludes with a powerful final dynamic of ff in measure 54.
