Napa Valley
Chamber Music Festival
August 3–21, 2022
28th Annual Season

Dear Friends and Music Lovers,

Welcome to the 28th season of Music in the Vineyards! We are very excited to return to 'normal' this summer with exhilarating concerts in stunning winery settings, a festival experience only found in the Napa Valley.

The turbulent 2020s have affected us all and have influenced how we program Music in the Vineyards. This summer for example, our focus turns again to underrepresented composers; female and BIPOC musicians who have been sadly overlooked. You will be delighted to discover works that have been in hiding for far too long! Also featured this season will be music written 'in memoriam' with the passing of a loved one in mind. We perform these pieces for all who have suffered and lost loved ones during these past few years.

Four remarkable string quartets will be in-residence this August—the Pacifica, Maxwell and Escher Quartets, as well as the Telegraph Quartet, who will provide the soundtrack for our first ever Not-So-Silent Cinema night! This unique community concert, with $10 & $15 tickets, will feature original music by pianist Stephen Prutsman. We will also present the world premiere of one of our favorite musicians, pianist Michael Brown, who is writing a work for solo cello and strings, featuring his long-time collaborator, cellist Nicholas Canellakis.

As part of our commitment to community engagement and increasing accessibility to chamber music for all, our 2022 Fellowship String Quartet — the Ivalas Quartet — will be in-residence for the entire festival, performing alongside our MITV musicians and at children's clubs, senior centers and all around the valley.

We look forward to seeing you at a concert and raising a glass of wine at intermission. With our audience and musicians together again, this is sure to be a festival not to be missed!

This program is inspired by folk and popular music: Paul Schoenfield's whimsical Café Music was sparked by his turn as house pianist at a Minneapolis steakhouse; John Novacek pays homage to Ragtime, and Bartók and Dvořák mined the folk music of their homelands to create sublime works of art.

Program

John Novacek: Four Rags

Bartók: Duos for Two Violins

Paul Schoenfield: Café Music

Dvořák: String Sextet

Aaron Copland:
The Sound of America

How Copland Defined American Music in the 20th Century

Saturday, August 6, 12:30 pm

Tickets $130

Renowned pianist John Novacek presents a piano demonstration and enlightening discussion of the music of Aaron Copland who is known as “The Dean of American Composers”. Winner of both a Pulitzer Prize and Academy Award, Copland incorporated popular American forms such as jazz and folk into his compositions for symphony orchestra, film and ballet.

You are welcomed with a glass of sparkling wine before John's presentation. Afterward, linger on the terrace surrounded by vineyards for wine and light appetizers along with musical conversation.

Space is limited.

Private residence in Napa, address issued with ticket receipt.

Free Community Performances

Ivalas Quartet

2022 Fellowship String Quartet

2022 is the fourth year of Music in the Vineyards' program designed to identify and nurture an emerging pre-professional string quartet. The Ivalas Quartet is this year's winner, chosen by national audition. To further MITV's commitment to community engagement and increase accessibility to chamber music, the quartet will perform free concerts throughout the valley, receive mentoring from MITV musicians and collaborate in festival concerts. Don't miss the opportunity to see a free performance. Their full schedule can be found on our website – musicinthevineyards.org.

High School Solo Competition Final Round

Saturday, August 13, 2:00 pm

Free online performance

Now in its ninth year, MITV's Solo Instrumental Competition for high school musicians who are residents of California, awards cash prizes of $1000, $750 and $500 to three outstanding instrumentalists selected by competitive audition. Due to the pandemic the competition will be online this year and you are invited to watch the final round on our website. Please join us in supporting these exceptional young musicians. Details can be found on our website — musicinthevineyards.org.

Free Open Rehearsals

Every year we open the doors of our rehearsal rooms and invite you to watch our musicians at work. Finding spaces where we can offer access during the Covid pandemic has been challenging and we are still working on this for the 2022 festival. Please check our website or give us a call for this year's details.

Pre-Concert Talks

August 3, 10 & 17

At 6:30 pm on Wednesday evenings join Artistic Director Michael Adams for The Inside Story, free pre-concert talks open to ticket holders, beginning 60 minutes before the concert. For details see individual concert listings.

The String Quartet Fellowship Program is supported by MITV's generous Fund A Need donors.
